Agency Profile

Agency Mission

The Department of Commerce and Economic Opportunity (DCEO) is the lead state agency responsible for improving Illinois' competitiveness in the global economy. Guided by an innovative regional approach, DCEO administers a wide range of economic and workforce development programs, services and initiatives designed to create and retain high quality jobs and build strong communities. DCEO leads the Illinois economic development process in partnership with businesses, local governments, workers and families.

Strategic Priorities

- Create and Retain Illinois Jobs
- Invest in the Illinois Workforce
- Develop Illinois' Community Infrastructure and Quality of Life
- Build a Statewide Culture of Innovation and Entrepreneurship
- Promote Energy Independence
- Catalyze Growth in the Industries of Tomorrow

DCEO was created October 1, 1979, merging the departments of Local Government Affairs, the Governor's Office of Manpower and Human Development, and the Department of Business and Economic Development in order to consolidate their economic and community development programs and to increase the effectiveness of the state in industrial and community development.

On July 1, 1995 the Coal Development and Marketing, Recycling and Waste Reduction, and Energy Conservation and Alternative Energy programs were transferred from the former Department of Energy and Natural Resources (ENR) to DCEO.

On August 1, 2000 the Job Training Partnership Act (JTPA) Division transferred from DCEO to the Illinois Department of Employment Security (IDES). And in June, 2003 the Workforce Investment Act (WIA) Division, formerly known as JTPA Division, returned to DCEO under the Bureau of Workforce Development.

On June 30, 2004 the Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program staff and the Illinois Home Weatherization Assistance Program staff transferred from DCEO to the Illinois Department of Public Aid (IDPA). During fiscal year 2009 the Office of Energy Assistance returned to DCEO.

Effective July 1, 2011 the DCEO Office of Occupational Safety & Health Administration (OSHA) transferred from DCEO to the Illinois Department of Labor (IDOL).

EEO/AA Challenges

The Department is underutilized in the Professional category, specifically in Region 1/ Cook County. The majority of positions in the Professional category are in the bargaining unit and therefore must be posted and filled in accordance to the AFSCME Master contract agreement. This severely impedes the Department in promoting internal candidates and hiring new candidates from the CMS eligible list. Absolute Veteran's preference is another factor that may impede our ability to recruit and hire a highly qualified minority in underutilized categories. In addition, the amount of staff and vacancies in the Professional category in Region 1 is very limited.

The department will continue to identify highly qualified Women, Black or African American, Hispanic or Latino, Asian, American Indian or Alaska Native, Native Hawaiian or Other Pacific Islanders, veterans and disabled applicants within official/manager and professional EEO job categories as they become vacant based on attrition and when new positions are authorized and appropriated.

The department will work in conjunction with the Illinois Department of Human Rights, statewide colleges and universities, advocacy groups, minority professional associations, community-based organizations, veterans outreach organizations and local unions to identify well-qualified Women, Black or African American, Hispanic or Latino, Asian, American Indian or Alaska Native, Native Hawaiian or Other Pacific Islanders, veterans and the disabled who may qualify for official/manager and professional positions when they occur.

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE AND ECONOMIC OPPORTUNITY
EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY COMPLAINT INVESTIGATION
PROCEDURE

A. POLICY

The agency affirms its commitment to a policy of equal employment opportunity through the implementation of an EEO complaint investigation procedure to promote the internal resolution of employee complaints of alleged discrimination. It is the conviction of the agency that the establishment of this complaint investigation procedure shall provide an internal avenue of redress to informally resolve complaints of alleged discrimination at the lowest organizational level, reducing the backlog, delay and expense of a prolonged formal investigation.

To that end, the DCEO Agency-wide EO Compliance Manager and General Counsel will work in a concerted effort during the investigation of complaints, documentation of facts, the presentation of findings, and recommendations to resolve the alleged discriminatory issue(s).

The use of this internal EEO complaint investigation procedure does not preclude the rights of an employee to file a charge directly with the state (DHR) or the federal government (EEOC). The filing of any complaint of alleged discrimination may not be used as a basis for future retaliation adversely affecting the rights of any employee.

B. PROCEDURES

The DCEO Internal EEO Complaint Form (attached) shall be used to clearly record the date, nature and other pertinent information of the complaint of alleged discrimination submitted to the DCEO Agency-wide EO Compliance Manager.

All complaints alleging a violation of the equal opportunity provisions must be filed with the DCEO Agency-wide EO Compliance Manager within (10) working days from the alleged violation.

The DCEO Agency-wide EO Compliance Manager will forward the complaint within five (5) working days from the date of receipt of the complaint to the Department's General Counsel or designee who will process it and begin an investigation.

Copies of the complaint are kept in a confidential location on file with the Department's General Counsel and the DCEO Agency-wide EO Compliance Manager. Upon request, the DCEO Agency-wide EO Compliance Manager will provide technical assistance to the General Counsel or designee throughout the investigatory process.

Upon completion of the investigation, the General Counsel or designee will develop a written report of the investigation findings. The report will be sent to the Director for review. The General Counsel or designee will prepare and send a finding letter to both parties involved.

The employee also has a right to file a formal charge within 180 days of the alleged violation with the with the Illinois Department of Human Rights (IDHR) and/or within 300 days of the alleged violation with the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) concurrently with the filing of an internal complaint.

AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT POLICY

It is the policy of the Illinois Department of Commerce and Economic Opportunity ("Agency") to comply with the provisions of the Americans with Disabilities Act 1990, 42 U.S.C.A. Section 12101, et seq ("ADA"), as amended by the ADAAA of 2008, and the Illinois Human Rights Act. The ADA prohibits discrimination against qualified individuals with disabilities on the basis of their disability. The ADA provides, in part, that qualified individuals with disabilities shall not be excluded from participating in or be denied the benefits of any programs, service or activity offered by this Agency.

The ADA requires that all programs, services and activities, when viewed in their entirety, are readily accessible to and usable by qualified individuals with disabilities. This Agency must communicate effectively with individuals with speech, visual, and hearing impairments and provide auxiliary communication aids to benefiting from the Agency's programs, services or activities to afford equal opportunity.

Should you wish to review the ADA or its interpretive regulations, ask questions about your rights and remedies under the ADA, request a reasonable modification to this Agency's policies, practices or procedures, or file a written grievance with this Agency alleging noncompliance with the ADA, please contact the Agency's Designated Coordinator for the ADA.

PHYSICAL BARRIERS

Immediately after the June 30, 2010 move of our DCEO Springfield Offices, the Office Equal Opportunity Monitoring & Compliance (EOMC) took the lead role in making sure each new or existing location is accessible to persons with disabilities. Pursuant to the following accessibility laws - the Human Rights Act 775 ILCS 5/1-101 et. seq.; Illinois Barriers Act 410 ILCS 25/1 et. seq.; the Americans with Disabilities Act, as amended by the ADAAA of 2008; Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Illinois Accessibility Code, the following physical barriers have been identified by DCEO's Office of EOMC and are being addressed through the Director's Office, DCEO Office of EOMC, DCEO Office of Management Operations and CMS.

During FY13 DCEO's Office of EOMC will continue to utilize accessibility evaluation surveys on each floor of the offices in which DCEO occupies. This effort will help to identify any/all structural concerns that might impede persons w/disabilities from accessing our buildings or our programs and services.

Facility Name/Barriers Identified

DCEO Springfield

Illinois Building
607 E. Adams Street (3rd, 5th and 12th Floors only)
Springfield, IL. 62701

Note: EOMC's goal is to carry out an accessibility evaluation survey for this building on specific DCEO floors, referenced above, during FY13.

Ridgely Building
500 E. Monroe Street
Springfield, IL. 62701-1643

Restrooms

Finding: None of the accessible bathrooms have the international disability symbol used to identify which bathrooms are "accessible" All doors should be in Braille.

Finding: Within the fifth floor restroom of the Ridgely Building that area has a turn radius that does not meet the minimum 60" diameter that would allow a person in a wheel chair adequate room to position themselves appropriately. (especially since the door swings inward)

Finding: Within the fifth floor restroom of the Ridgely Building the door exceeds the 5 lbs. maximum push pull weight).

Ridgely Building
500 E. Monroe Street
Springfield, IL. 62701-1643

Restrooms (Continued)

Finding: Mirror heights in the accessible restrooms are not in compliance. (they are well above the 40" maximum allowance)

Emergency Rescue

Finding: In case a workplace emergency evacuation occurs, at least 1-primary and 1-alternate emergency evacuation assistant should be designated to assist a disabled employee (per the disabled employee's request and approval.)

Pipes

Finding: Exposed hot water drain pipes on 5th and 12th floors under accessible sinks should be well insulated and wrapped. A person wheel chair bound could burn their legs if they were to touch pipes that were hot.

Finding: The dispensers mounted in rest rooms need to be adjusted for individuals with disabilities to no higher than 54" for forward reach approach.

DCEO Chicago

James R. Thompson Center

PROCEDURAL BARRIERS

A. Pre-Employment Screening

The ADA prohibits an employer from making any pre-employment inquiries regarding an applicant's physical or mental disability.

According to the ADA, employers may ask about an applicant's ability to perform both essential and marginal job functions. However, employers may not refuse to hire an applicant with a disability because the applicant's disability prevents him or her from performing marginal functions.

Permissible Inquiries

- Employers may describe or demonstrate the job function and ask if the applicant can perform that function with or without reasonable accommodation.
- Employers may ask whether the applicant has a driver's license, if driving is a job function, but may not ask whether the applicant has a visual disability.
- Employers may also ask an applicant (including one with a known disability) to describe or demonstrate how, with or without reasonable accommodation, the applicant will be able to perform job-related functions. Generally, this must be asked of all applicants.
- If an applicant has a known disability that may interfere with the performance of a job-related function, they can ask only that applicant.

Impermissible Inquiries

- Employers may not use an application form that lists potentially disabling impairments and ask the applicant to check any of those which he/she may have.
- Employers may not ask how often individuals will require leave for treatment, or use leave as a result of incapacitation because of their disability.
- Employers may not ask about an applicant's prior workers' compensation history.
- Employers may not ask if an individual has any disabilities or impairments which may affect their performance on the job.
- Employers may not ask information about the types of medication an individual is taking.

B. Pre-employment Testing

DCEO does not conduct pre-employment testing.

C. Employment Criteria and Job Description Review

Any employment criteria established by the department to screen applicants should be reviewed before positions are filled to determine whether they would screen out applicants with disabilities. Employment criteria with a disparate impact on applicants with disabilities should be examined to determine whether they are job-related. If such criteria are not job-related, they should be eliminated. Job descriptions should be reviewed before interviews are held to identify essential job duties.

D. Identification of Disabled Employees for Layoff Report

For purposes of preparing a departmental layoff report, disabled employees are identified through the Survey for Disabled Employees. Employees who identify impairments on this form are to be considered disabled, and those who do not indicate any impairment are not considered disabled. The survey form contains a notice to this effect. Employees have the right to complete new survey forms at any time during their employment, should their disability status change.

E. Identification of an ADA Coordinator

F. Emergency Evacuation Procedures

The DCEO Agency-wide EO Compliance Manager provides emergency evacuation procedures periodically to employees with disabilities.

ILLINOIS DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE AND ECONOMIC OPPORTUNITY

REASONABLE ACCOMMODATIONS POLICY

In compliance with the U.S. Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, as amended by the ADAAA of 2008; the Illinois Human Rights Act and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, it is the policy of the Department of Commerce and Economic Opportunity (DCEO) to reasonably accommodate the known physical or mental limitations of otherwise qualified applicants and employees with disabilities. DCEO recognizes the right of a qualified applicant or employee with a disability to request accommodation to the job application procedure and to any aspect of his or her subsequent employment with the agency.

It is the responsibility of DCEO to provide accommodations to qualified applicants and employees with disabilities, when such accommodations do not pose an undue hardship to the operation of the agency's business.

The DCEO Agency-wide EO Compliance Manager and the agency's Americans with Disabilities Act Coordinator can provide further information about the agency's policy in this area.

REASONABLE ACCOMMODATIONS POLICY

I. INTRODUCTION

The Americans With Disabilities Act of 1990, 42 U.S.C. 12101 et seq. (ADA), as amended by the ADAAA of 2008, prohibits discrimination against a qualified individual with a disability in regard to job application procedures, the hiring, advancement or discharge of employees; employee compensation; job training; and, other terms, conditions and privileges of employment. [Section 102 (a)]

An employer must make reasonable accommodations to the known physical or mental limitations of an otherwise qualified individual with a disability who is an applicant or employee, unless such covered entity has demonstrated that the accommodation would impose an undue hardship on the operation of the business of such covered entity. [Section 102 (b) (5) (A)] However, each individual is responsible for initiating the request for reasonable accommodation, if such individual believes such accommodation is required to enable him/her to perform the essential functions of the job.

The policy and procedures set forth herein are also intended to meet the requirements of the Illinois Human Rights Act (Ill. Rev. Stat. 1989, ch. 68, para 1-101 et seq.) and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 (29 U.S.C. 794), as well as the ADA, as amended by the ADAAA of 2008.

II. POLICY

In accordance with the law and regulations, it is the policy of the Illinois Department of Commerce and Economic Opportunity (hereinafter "DCEO"):

- to inform employees and applicants about DCEO policies and of the right to reasonable accommodations and
- to provide any and all such reasonable accommodations in the most cost-effective manner available unless it would impose an "undue hardship".

This policy is intended to comply with the applicable laws and is not intended to create any legal or contractual rights or obligations. For the purpose of this policy, the term "employee" shall include "applicant" and "prospective employee".

III. REASONABLE ACCOMMODATIONS COMMITTEE (RAC)

A. PURPOSE

The purpose of the RAC is to implement effectively this policy.

B. MEMBERSHIP

The RAC consists of the following DCEO employees:

- Deputy Director of Human Resources
- DCEO Chief Operating Officer
- DCEO Agency-wide EO Compliance Manager
- ADA Coordinator

C. DUTIES

The RAC provides technical assistance to IDCEO employees on technology, the ADA Title V of the Rehabilitation Act, accessibility standards and employee relations as it relates to requests or potential requests.

The RAC will maintain documentation regarding RAC requests in order to

- a. provide appropriate budget information and projected cost analysis for future budget cycles to the Budget Division;
- b. lend consistency to the system of the provision of accommodations and ensure nondiscrimination in the treatment of employees;
- c. ensure that requests are processed and approved accommodations provided in a timely manner;
- d. provide reports on employee accommodations and costs to regulatory agencies.

The RAC shall provide quarterly reports, including the above documentation, to the Director for his information/action. All reports shall be developed in a manner which protects the confidentiality of the employee.

IV. REASONABLE ACCOMMODATIONS

A. Reasonable accommodations means making modifications or adjustments to a job application process and the work environment that enables qualified applicants or employees to be considered for a position, to perform the essential functions of a position and to enjoy equal benefits and privileges of employment. ADA regulations: 29 C.F.R. 1630.2(o)(1)

B. Reasonable Accommodation may include, but is not limited to:

- 1. Making existing facilities used by employees readily accessible to and useable by individuals with disabilities.

2. Job restructuring; part-time or modified work schedules; reassignment to a vacant position; acquisition or modification of equipment or devices; appropriate adjustment or modification of examinations, training materials or policies; the provision of qualified readers or interpreters; and, other similar accommodations for individuals with disabilities. Section 101(9) of the ADA.

- C. The determination of which accommodation is appropriate in a particular situation will be made on a case by case basis and involve the employer and employee in a flexible, interactive process whereby the employee identifies the precise limitations imposed by the disability and along with the employer explores potential accommodations that would overcome those limitations.

NOTE: The ADA permits employers to choose the accommodation which is lowest in cost if such accommodation provides a similar result to a more costly accommodation.

- D. Reasonable accommodations may be categorized in the following manner:

1. restructuring/modifications accommodations, include, but are not limited to: job restructuring by removal of non-essential tasks, job modifications, rearrangement of office furniture, removal of desk drawers, flexible time to allow for transportation and/or medical schedules, etc.;
2. technological/accessibility accommodations include but are not limited to: dictating machines, voice activated equipment, push button telephones, options, Telecommunication Device for the Deaf (TDD's), hand controls for dictating devices, speaker-phones, telephone amplifiers, teletypewriters (TTY's), typewriters, Braille typewriters, orthopedic desk chairs, and other adaptive office furniture, looping systems, etc., as well as architectural modifications. In recent years, internet based (computer) based technology has evolved rapidly and is making the TTY obsolete. Three popular variations currently exist in office environments. (E-Mail based (software) applications such as Text Net and Next Talk, Video Remote Service (VRS) is real time internet based communication that requires broadband and Video Remote Interpretation (VRI) or Online Interpretation (OI) which is basically the same thing as VRS. To find out more about these devices please contact the Illinois Deaf and Hard of Hearing Commission, 1630 S. 6th Street, Springfield, IL. 62703 or 217-557-4495. Some types of accommodations need not be on an individual basis if available at the work site and if used by two or more individuals will not impede job performance; and,
3. Assistive care accommodations include the utilization of additional persons such as readers, driver, interpreters and attendants who specifically assist an individual in performing the essential duties of the job.

Note: Reasonable Accommodations pertains only to the employee and does not include family members.

V. UNDUE HARDSHIP

- A. “Undue hardship” means significant difficulty or expense in, or resulting from, the provision of the accommodations. It refers to any accommodations that would be unduly costly, extensive, substantial or disruptive, or that would fundamentally alter the nature or operation of the business of the agency.
- B. Whether an accommodation will impose an undue hardship must be analyzed on a case by case basis. Factors to be considered in determining whether an accommodation would impose an undue hardship on IDCEO may include, but not be limited to: (1) the nature and net cost of the accommodation needed; (2) the overall appropriations of the facility or facilities involved in the provision of the reasonable accommodation, the number of persons employed at such facility and the effect on expenses and resources; (3) the overall appropriation of IDCEO with respect to the number of employees and the number, type, and location of its facilities; (4) the type of operation or operations of the IDCEO, including the composition, structure and functions of the workforce of such agency, and the geographic separateness and administrative or fiscal relationship of the facility or facilities in question to the IDCEO; and (5) the impact of the accommodation upon the operation of the facility, including the impact on the ability of other employees to be able to perform their duties and the impact of the facility’s ability to conduct business.
- C. A requested accommodation may be denied if it is unduly disruptive to other employees or to the functioning of the business of the agency. To demonstrate the accommodation may be denied if it is unduly disruptive, the disruption must result from the provision of the accommodation, not from the fears or prejudices of other employees toward the individual’s disability. The terms of a collective bargaining agreement may be relevant.

VI. PROCEDURES FOR PROCESSING REQUESTS FOR REASONABLE ACCOMMODATIONS

- A. The determination of reasonable accommodations for qualified employees who require such to overcome a physical or mental impairment in performance of job duties must be conducted at the request and with the consultation of the employee.
 - 1. A person with a disability may be qualified for a position vacancy if the person satisfies the requisite skills, experience, education and other job-related requirements of the employment position, as set forth in standardized Department of Central Management Services requirements, and with or without reasonable accommodations can perform the essential functions of the job.
 - 2. Essential job functions vary with individual job descriptions and would include those physical, mental and inter-personal activities necessary to achieve the anticipated job performance effectively.
 - 3. A determination as to a reasonable accommodation for one person will not be treated as a precedent for another person.

- B. The employee must request any and all reasonable accommodations on a Request for Reasonable Accommodation form. The employee is responsible for adequately responding to all questions as applicable on the form. Once completed, the form shall be transmitted by the employee to the immediate supervisor, or by the prospective employee to the interviewing supervisor. The employee should retain a copy of the request form.
1. If requested by management, the employee shall submit medical documentation to support the need for the accommodation. When additional information becomes available, the employee should submit it in writing to the immediate supervisor for transmittal to the RAC.
 2. Technical assistance is available to the employee and supervisor(s) from the Human Resources Division upon request.
- C. The immediate supervisor or interviewing supervisor shall make a recommendation regarding the request within five (5) working days of receipt and forward the request to the appropriate Deputy Director who shall have five (5) working days to review and provide a recommendation on the request form.
- D. The Deputy Director shall forward the request to the Human Resources Office for review by the Reasonable Accommodations Committee (RAC).
- E. Unless the appropriate reasonable accommodation is so obvious to either or both the agency and the qualified individual with a disability, all reviewers and the Committee will, using a problem solving approach.
1. Analyze the particular job involved and determine its purpose and essential functions.
 2. Consult with the individual with a disability to ascertain the precise job-related limitations imposed by the individual's disability and how those limitations could be overcome with a reasonable accommodation;
 3. In consultation with the individual to be accommodated, identify potential accommodations and assess the effectiveness each would have in enabling the individual to perform the essential functions of the position; and,
 4. Consider the preference of the individual to be accommodated and select and implement the accommodation that is most appropriate for both the employee and the agency.
- F. All reviewers shall consider the request based on the following criteria: (1) the relationship between the accommodation and the essential job functions, (2) necessity, (3) cost effectiveness, (4) undue hardship to the agency, and (5) compatibility with existing equipment (where applicable).
- G. Within ten (10) working days, the RAC will act upon the request and report accommodations to the Director. If further information is required to make a recommendation, the employee shall be given thirty (30) days to provide such and the 10 working day time shall begin when the additional information is received.

- H. The Director will make the final decision within five (5) working days of receipt. A copy of the Director's decision and the RAC's recommendation will be returned by the ADA Coordinator to the appropriate Deputy Director who will coordinate implementing the approved request with appropriate staff. A copy of the Director's decision and the RAC's recommendation will also be sent to the employee by RAC within five (5) working days of receipt of the Director's decision.
- I. The time limits provided in this section may be extended up to thirty (30) days if circumstances warrant (e.g., absence of a person needed to make determination, additional information required, etc.).

VII. RECONSIDERATION

If the employee wishes to ask the Director to reconsider a decision on a Reasonable Accommodation request, the request shall be addressed to the Director within ten (10) working days of notification of the decision. The request shall include the reasons for the request and, if appropriate, alternative suggestions for reasonable accommodations. A decision shall be made and the employee notified within ten (10) working days of receipt of the request. The decision constitutes the final administrative action of ILDCEO on the request.

VIII. IMPLEMENTATION

- A. When implementing the approved request, the appropriate Deputy Director shall provide the following:
 - 1. If the requested accommodation is within the restructuring or modification category, the job will be modified/restructured with assistance from the Deputy Director, DCEO Office of Human Resources. When the supervisor, manager, appropriate Deputy Director and employee are all in agreement, the supervisor shall provide the accommodation; or,
 - 2. If the requested accommodation is of a technological/accessibility or assistive care nature, the appropriate Deputy Director will coordinate purchase of equipment or devices, or initiate contracts, with DCEO's ADA Coordinator within the DCEO Office of Human Resources. An employee who has been denied accommodation has the right to file a complaint at the state level with the Illinois Department of Human Rights within 180 days of the denial of the request. An employee may also have the right to file a complaint with the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, once the EEOC rules implementing the Americans with Disabilities Act become effective July 21, 1990, as amended by the ADAAA of 2008.

B. Expenditure Procedures

1. In carrying out its expenditure obligation responsibilities, the Division of Financial Management relies on DCEO business unit managers to obtain all required approvals before making a commitment for expenditure of agency funds, to ensure that all purchases are consistent with State of Illinois and DCEO's procurement policies and procedures, and to initiate the steps required to encumber the funds through the Expenditure Planning and Control (EPC) system.
2. As part of the process for purchasing goods or services using agency funds, DCEO managers are required to initiate an entry for the planned purchase into the EPC system to commit the funds within DCEO's accounting system. Depending on the type of purchase, the business unit is also required to produce and approve an expenditure authorization (EA) document such as:
 - Contract Obligation (COs)
 - Data Processing Contract Obligations (DPs)
 - Purchase Requisitions (PRs)
3. In general, goods under $10,000 and professional services not exceeding $5,000 are procured on either a purchase requisition (non-EDP goods) or an EDP Purchase Request; any purchase exceeding those thresholds must be procured on a contract.
4. All expenditure authorization documents or contracts regarding reasonable accommodation requests should clearly reflect within the document that it is in fact a "reasonable accommodation" purchase.

PROCEDURES FOR DETERMINATION AND PROCUREMENT OF SPECIFIC SERVICES

A. Interpreter Services

1. Duties

In situations where other alternative accommodations (e.g., job restructuring, providing a telephone device for the deaf) are insufficient to allow the employee to perform essential job functions, the employee may request that services of a qualified sign language interpreter as a reasonable accommodation.

The duties of such a sign language interpreter may include the provision of sign language interpretation for office activities and meetings, conferences and training sessions, and telephone communications. The employee's immediate supervisor is responsible for the determination of work relatedness.

The provision of sign language interpretation to and from the work site, during meals or non-work related activities, is not the responsibility of ILDCEO. Payment for these activities is the responsibility of the employee.

2. Procurement

Depending upon the nature of the request and if the request is approved, the Department will make every attempt to fulfill this request using internal sources. Otherwise, the Department will attempt to fulfill the request using appropriate outside sources.

B. Driver Services

1. Duties

Many positions require travel for the performance of essential job functions. When providing reasonable accommodation, the use of specialized public transit, more flexible time schedules, or limiting or eliminating travel requirements should be considered. In some cases, however, the provision of a driver may be necessary to enable the employee to meet more extensive travel requirements.

Transportation of the employee or driver to and from the work site, meals or non-work related activities is not the responsibility of ILDCEO. Payment of these costs is the responsibility of the employee.

2. Procurement

Depending upon the nature of the request and if the request is approved, the Department will make every attempt to fulfill this request using internal sources. Otherwise, the Department will attempt to fulfill the request using appropriate outside sources.

C. Reader Services

1. Duties

Numerous technological advancements have made possible the development of devices designed to allow visually impaired persons the benefit of written communications. The Opticon, the Kurzweil Reader, Braille printers and typewriters, tape recording devices and reading aids are examples of these accommodations. Reader services include the reading of work-related materials to allow the employee to perform essential job functions.

2. Procurement

Depending upon the nature of the request and if the request is approved, the Department will make every attempt to fulfill this request using internal sources. Otherwise, the Department will attempt to fulfill the request using appropriate outside sources.

D. Attendant Services

1. Duties

In situations where alternative accommodations (e.g., job restructuring, technology) are insufficient to allow the employee to perform essential job functions, the employee may request, as a reasonable accommodation, the services of an attendant. The duties of such an attendant may include:

- a. physical assistance in telephone use and setting up assistive devices or other office equipment;
- b. physical assistance in transferring to and from the transportation modes and other assistance in the performance of job duties on travel status; and,
- c. other assistance directly related to their job duties.

The transportation of the employee or attendant to and from the work site, meals, or non-work-related activities is not the responsibility of IDCEO. Payment for these activities is the responsibility of the employee.

2. Procurement

Depending upon the nature of the request and if the request is approved, the Department will make every attempt to fulfill this request using internal sources. Otherwise, the Department will attempt to fulfill the request using appropriate outside sources.

X. VOUCHERING OF REASONABLE ACCOMMODATION EXPENDITURES

A payment to vendors or reimbursements to employees must be requested by the payee on an invoice. When the invoice is received in Financial Managements, it is matched to the appropriate EA, and we prepare a C-13 Invoice (See p. 36x). The C-13 must be signed by two persons in the approving Bureau; one of these is the Head of Unit. Approved vouchers are submitted to the Illinois Office of the Comptroller for issuance of a warrant to the payee.

State of Illinois Reasonable Accommodation Request for Employees

Pursuant to the requirements of state and federal laws, a qualified individual with a disability has the right to request reasonable accommodation in conjunction with his or her employment. Reasonable accommodation means a modification to application procedure, access to the work site, and adjustment to the work process or work schedule that would enable a person with a disability to perform a particular job. Employers are not required to provide accommodations that would impose undue hardship on the operations of their programs. The procedures for accommodation request appear on the back of this form. Completed accommodation request forms should be submitted to the immediate supervisor, with a copy to the agency's EEO/AA Officer and/or the ADA Coordinator. The agency EEO/AA Officer and/or the ADA Coordinator can respond to questions about the accommodation process.

Accommodation Request Procedures for Employees

The following procedures should be followed in processing reasonable accommodation requests from employees. The agency EEO/AA Officer and/or the ADA Coordinator can provide guidance on the accommodation process.

1. The employee shall submit a completed reasonable accommodation request form to his or her immediate supervisor and give a copy of the form to the agency EEO/AA Officer and/or the ADA Coordinator. The employee should retain a copy of this information in his or her files.
2. Once received, the supervisor shall review the request form for completeness and, in consultation with the EEO/AA Officer and/or the ADA Coordinator, determine whether medical documentation is needed to either establish the presence of a disability or determine an appropriate accommodation. If documentation is needed, the agency should narrowly tailor its request to the issues of whether the employee has a disability under the law and how he or she can be accommodated. The employee should be asked to complete a medical release form (also narrowly tailored), if the agency has additional questions upon review of the medical documentation. When necessary, the employee should be asked to provide documentation to address these issues.
3. Upon receipt of necessary documentation, the supervisor shall make a recommendation, in writing, to the Division Manager within five (5) working days.
4. The Division manager shall review the supervisor's recommendation and make a recommendation to the Reasonable Accommodation Committee (RAC) within five (5) working days of receipt of the supervisor's recommendation. The Division Manager shall forward his/her recommendation along with the original reasonable accommodation request form and all documentation to the agency's EEO/AA Officer and/or the ADA Coordinator.
5. The EEO/AA Officer and/or the ADA Coordinator shall convene a meeting of the Reasonable Accommodation Committee within ten (10) working days of receipt of the Division Manager's recommendation. The RAC shall review the accommodation request. Once the Committee's review is complete, the Committee's recommendation shall be submitted to the Director within five (5) working days of the Committee's review for the Director's approval or denial.
6. The Director shall review the RAC's recommendation and shall render a decision of denial or approval within five (5) working days of receipt from the RAC.
7. Provided that appropriate documentation has been submitted, the EEO/AA Officer and/or the ADA Coordinator shall inform the employee in writing of the agency's decision to grant or deny the request within thirty (30) working days of receipt of the completed request form and any necessary medical documentation. A copy of the response will also be sent to the supervisor.
8. If the Director approves the accommodation request, the agency shall take appropriate action to comply with the accommodation request. Approved accommodation requests shall be implemented as soon as possible. Please note that the agency may offer alternative suggestions providing an equally effective accommodation to remove the workplace barrier in question.
9. Reconsideration: If an employee wishes to ask the Director to reconsider a decision on a reasonable accommodation request, a written request shall be addressed to the Director within ten (10) working days of notification of the decision. The reconsideration request shall include the reasons that a reconsideration is being requested and, if appropriate, alternative suggestions for reasonable accommodation. After a complete review of the matter, a decision shall be made and the employee shall be notified. The Director's decision on this recommendation shall constitute the final internal action by the Department on the accommodation request.
10. An employee who has been denied accommodation has the right to file a complaint at the state level with the Illinois Department of Human Rights within 180 days of the denial of the request. An employee may also have the right to file a complaint with the U. S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) within 300 days.
11. The EEO/AA Officer and/or the ADA Coordinator shall document any action taken on a reasonable accommodation request where indicated on the request form and shall retain completed accommodation request forms one year following final action in the matter.

Applicants may request accommodation to any stage of the application process, including the employment application, examination procedure or interviewing process. Note that the Department of Central Management Services is responsible for accommodations to its testing procedures.

Once an individual with a disability has been hired, he or she has the right to request accommodation to the work site, work schedule or work process that would enable him or her to perform the job in question. Procedures for applicants to follow in making an accommodation request are listed below. The EEO/AA Officer and/or the ADA Coordinator can provide additional information about the accommodation process within their agencies.

Procedures:

1. Applicants may request accommodations to the application process orally or in writing (either through correspondence or the use of the accommodation request form for applicants). 2. Applicants shall submit accommodation requests to the interviewing officer. The interviewing officer should provide a copy of the form to the EEO/AA Officer and/or the ADA Coordinator. In cases where the EEO/AA Officer and/or the ADA Coordinator completes the form for the applicant with a disability, the EEO/AA Officer and/or the ADA Coordinator shall submit completed forms to the interviewing officer and retain a copy for him or herself.
3. A response to the request will be provided to the applicant within five days following receipt of the request by the interviewing officer.
4. If it is within the bounds of the authority of the interviewing officer to grant the request and he or she believes it to be reasonable, the accommodation will be provided. Information regarding the type of accommodation provided will be sent to the EEO/AA Officer and/or the ADA Coordinator.
5. If another official within the agency must be consulted in order for the accommodation to be provided, he or she will determine whether the agency will grant the request.
6. If the agency denies the request, the applicant has the right to file an internal complaint with the EEO/AA Officer and/or the ADA Coordinator and/or external complaint with the Illinois Department of Human Rights within 180 days of the denial. Section 575.50 Final Review

- a) If the grievance is not resolved by the Designated Coordinator to the satisfaction of the complainant, the complainant may submit a written request for final review to the Director within 10 business days after receipt of the Designated Coordinator's response. Section 575.60 Case-by-Case Resolution

Each grievance involves a unique set of factors that includes, but is not limited to: the specific nature of the program, service or activity at issue; the health and safety of others; and whether an accommodation would constitute a fundamental alteration to the program, service or activity or undue hardship on the Department. Accordingly, termination of a grievance at any level, whether through the granting of relief or otherwise, shall not constitute a precedent on which any other complainants should rely.

APPLICABLE EEO LAWS

The Federal and State Civil Rights law, rules, regulations, executive orders that impact the Department of Commerce and Economic Opportunity are identified below. Where there is a discrepancy between Federal, State or Local law - Federal law supersedes the latter two, unless State or Local law is more stringent.

FEDERAL LAW:

U.S. Constitution: Thirteenth Amendment (1865)

states: "Neither slavery nor involuntary servitude, except as a punishment for crime whereof the party shall have been duly convicted, shall exist within the U.S., or any place subject to their jurisdiction."

U.S. Constitution: Fourteenth Amendment (1868)

states: "All persons born or naturalized in the U.S., and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the U.S. and of the State wherein they reside. No State shall make or abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the U.S; nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law; nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws."

The Civil Rights Act of 1866:

"All persons within the jurisdiction of the U.S. shall have the same right in every State and Territory to make and enforce contracts, to sue, be parties, give evidence, and to the full and equal benefit of all laws and proceedings for the security of property as is enjoyed by white citizens..." (enacted by Congress pursuant to the enabling provision contained in Section 2 of the 13th Amendment.)

The Civil Rights Act of 1870:

"All citizens of the U.S. shall have the same right, in every State and Territory, as is enjoyed by white citizens thereof to inherit, purchase, lease, sell, hold and convey real and personal property."

The Civil Rights Act of 1871:

"Every person, who, under color of any statute, ordinance, regulation custom or usage, of any State or Territory, subjects, or causes to be subjected, any citizen...to the deprivation of any rights, privileges or immunities secured by the Constitution and laws, shall be liable to the person injured..." (enacted by Congress pursuant to the enabling provision in Section 5 of the 14th Amendment.)

The Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended

This Act is the most comprehensive statute on Civil Rights ever enacted in the U.S. It bans discrimination in voting rights, public accommodations, public education and federally assisted programs.

Title VI

"No person in the U.S. shall, on the grounds of race, color, or national origin, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any program or activity receiving Federal Financial Assistance."

Title VII

"It is unlawful for any employer with 15 or more employees to discriminate in employment on the basis of race, color, religion, sex and national origin." Nor can an employer limit, segregate or classify employees or applicants by race, color, religion, sex or national origin in any way that would adversely affect their employment status."

It is unlawful under the Act to retaliate against a person who has openly opposed an employer's discriminatory practices or who has filed a charge or assisted in an investigation of a charge.

The Equal Employment Opportunity Act of 1972 is an amendment to the Civil Rights Act of 1964. This Civil Rights Act was amended by making two significant changes: 1) to provide the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC), the agency empowered to administer the law, the authority to enforce its provisions in federal court; and 2) to extend EEOC's jurisdiction to include public employers with 25 or more employees as well as private employers with 15 or more employees. This amendment adds sex and religion to the Title VII portion and extends Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) to state, local and municipal organizations, all employment agencies (private and public) and to labor organizations. This Act empowers EEOC to bring civil action against any organization, which is alleged to be practicing discrimination. The Act also gives the right to an individual to take a complaint directly to a court of law.

In 1975 the Civil Rights Act was amended by modifying Sec. 705(e) as it relates to the duties of the EEOC when preparing its report to the Congress and President, at the close of each fiscal year, to not only provide the action the commission has taken; but to also includes the names, salaries, and duties of all individuals in its employ and the monies it has disbursed.

The Pregnancy Discrimination Act of 1978 amends Title VII of the Civil Rights Act to prohibit sex discrimination based on pregnancy. It required that women who were temporarily disabled due to pregnancy, childbirth and related medical conditions be provided the same benefits as those provided other disabled workers.

In 1980 the Civil Rights Act was amended by modifying Sec. 717(a) to include the General Accounting Office (GAO) under the coverage of the law.

The Civil Rights Act of 1991

The purpose of the Civil Rights Act of 1991 expands the protections afforded individuals under the Civil Rights Act of 1964. It protects against and deters unlawful discrimination and harassment in employment. In addition, it reverses several Supreme Court decisions that weakened federal anti-discrimination laws.

The most significant aspects of the law include the following:

Seniority Systems - for the purpose of filing a complaint, the statutes of limitations begin to run when the seniority system is adopted, when an individual becomes subject to the system, or when the individual is injured by the application of/or provisions of the system.

Glass Ceiling - establishes a Glass Ceiling Commission which will conduct a study and make recommendations on the elimination of barriers to advancement of women and minorities.

Consent Decrees - bars challenges, under certain circumstances, to legitimate consent judgments or orders resolving employment discrimination claims.

Jury Trials - when compensatory or punitive damages are sought under Title VII, the ADA or the federal employment provisions of Rehabilitation Act of 1973, any party may demand a jury trial.

Compensatory and Punitive Damages - the amount of damages that may now be awarded for future pecuniary losses, emotional pain, suffering, inconvenience, mental anguish, or loss of employment, is limited to a maximum of $300,000.

Other Monetary Awards - back pay and interest on back pay.

Fees for Experts - permits the inclusion of expert witness fees as part of an attorney's fee award.

Title I of the Civil Rights Act of 1968 provides for criminal penalties for interference with an individual's employment rights due to his/her race, color, religion or national origin.

Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, as amended, prohibits discrimination on the basis of sex in all education programs or activities receiving federal financial assistance.

The Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967, as amended prohibits arbitrary discrimination against persons 40 years of age or older. This law is administered by EEOC.

The Age Discrimination Act of 1975

This act prohibits unreasonable discrimination on the basis of age in programs or activities receiving Federal financial assistance, including programs or activities receiving funds under the State and Local Fiscal Assistance Act of 1972. This Act has no lower age limit and is administered by the Office of Civil Rights (OCR).

Age Discrimination in Employment Waiver Protection Act of 1989

This bill, SB54, as amended, will alter the Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967 to ensure that older workers are not coerced or manipulated into waiving their rights to seek legal relief under the ADEA. The Waiver Protection Act provides that older workers may waive their ADEA rights in the absence of supervision only when settling a bona fide claim of age discrimination, which originated either by filing a charge with the EEOC, initiating a court action, or making a written allegation directly to the employer. Once there is a bona fide claim, the individual may settle the claim and waive ADEA rights without federal supervision as part of the settlement, provided certain basic protections are present when the waiver is executed.

The Rehabilitation Act of 1973

This Act prohibits discrimination against people with physical and mental disabilities except where the disability would prevent them from performing the major duties of the job. It also provides for affirmative action in the employment and advancement of qualified disabled people.

Section 503 requires federal contractors and their subcontractors to undertake affirmative action in the employment of qualified disabled individuals. The Office of Federal Contract Compliance Programs (OFCCP) and the U.S. Department of Labor issued administrative guidelines and is responsible for enforcing and monitoring compliance.

Back pay awards may be ordered in Section 503 suits.

Section 504 requires recipients of federal financial assistance to provide equal employment opportunity and equal service access to qualified disabled individuals. Executive Order 12250 requires each federal agency granting funds to issue Section 504 regulations and authorizes the Justice Department to coordinate Section 504 implementation. Section 504 is enforced by the agency providing the federal funds in question.

The Rehabilitation Act requires employers to "make reasonable accommodations to the physical and mental limitations" of employees and applicants who may be disabled. This obligation includes both alterations in physical facilities and modifications in the structure or scheduling of a job.

Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, as amended by the Americans with Disabilities Amendments Act of 2008 Congress enacted the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 ("the ADA") to eliminate discrimination against individuals with disabilities in the areas of employment, public accommodations, education, transportation, communication, recreation, institutionalization, health services, voting, and access to public service. Title I of the ADA prohibits discrimination in employment against individuals with disabilities and establishes the standards governing an employer's affirmative duty to accommodate an individual with a disability. Title II of the ADA prohibits discrimination against individuals with disabilities by state and local governments. The ADA Amendments Act of 2008 broadens the coverage of "disability" and thereby brings more individuals under the protection of the law. EEOC issued new regulations under this Act.

Vietnam Era Veterans Readjustment Act of 1974

This federal law requires employers to provide equal opportunity to Vietnam veterans and to disabled veterans of any war and to take affirmative action to ensure such opportunities.

The Equal Pay Act of 1963, as amended

This Act provides that an employer may not discriminate on the basis of sex by paying employees different wages for doing equal work on jobs requiring equal skills, effort and responsibility, and which are performed under similar working conditions in the same establishment. The Act also prohibits reducing any employee's wage in order to come into compliance with the Act.

In general, any employee who is covered by the minimum wage provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA) is protected by this Act. In addition, the Act was amended in 1972 to include some employees not covered by the FLSA, such as executives, administrators, professionals, etc. Violation of this law, if determined to be intentional, can result in a back pay award covering a period which begins three years prior to the date of filing and ends when the award is made.

Under the law, employers may have differences in wage rates based on: (1) a seniority system; (2) a merit system; (3) a system which measures earnings by quantity or quality of production, e.g., piece rate; (4) any other bona fide differential.

This Act is enforced by the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC.)

Intergovernmental Personnel Act of 1970

This Act ensures the fair treatment of applicants and employees in all aspects of personnel administration without regard to political affiliation, race, color, national origin, sex or religious creed and with proper regard for their privacy and constitutional rights as citizens. The United States Civil Service Commission (USCSC) administers the Act. USCSC may recommend remedial action, including the termination of grants to states and local governments after they have been given reasonable notice and an opportunity for a hearing, if the program fails to comply with the provisions of the Act. However, actual enforcement authority rests with the grantor agency.

The Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) of 1993

This act requires employers to provide up to 12 weeks of unpaid job-protected leave to "eligible" employees for certain family and medical reasons. Employees are eligible if they have worked for a covered employer for at least one year, and for 1,250 hours during the year preceding the start of the leave, and be employed at a worksite where the employer employs at least 50 employees within a 75-mile radius. The U. S. Department of Labor's Wage and Hour Division is authorized to investigate and resolve complaints of violations. Unpaid leave must be granted for any of the following reasons:

- To care for the employee's child after birth, or placement for adoption or foster care;
- To care for the employee's spouse, son or daughter, or parent, who has a serious health condition; or
- For a serious health condition that makes the employee unable to perform the employee's job.

Section 585(a) of the National Defense Authorization Act (NDAA) amended the FMLA to provide eligible employees working for covered employers two important leave rights related to military service:

Qualifying Reason for Leave. Eligible employees are entitled to up to 12 weeks of leave because of "any qualifying exigency" arising out of the fact that the spouse, son, daughter, or parent of the employee is on active duty, or has been notified of an impending call to active duty status, in support of a contingency operation.

Leave Entitlement. An eligible employee who is the spouse, son, daughter, parent, or next of kin of a covered service member who is recovering from a serious illness or injury sustained in the line of duty on active duty is entitled to up to 26 weeks of leave in a single 12-month period to care for the service member. This military caregiver leave is available during "a single 12-month period" during which an eligible employee is entitled to a combined total of 26 weeks of all types of FMLA leave.

Section 3 of the Housing and Urban Development Act of 1968, as amended, provides that opportunities for training and employment funded by Community Development Assistance Program (CDAP) projects be given to lower income residents within the same location of the project. Also, contracts will be awarded to business concerns located within the same project area.

Section 109 of the Housing and Urban Development Act of 1974, as amended, provides that no person shall be excluded from participation, denied program benefits, or subjected to discrimination under any program or activity funded in whole or in part with funds made available under this title.

Uniformed Services Employment and reemployment Rights Act (USERRA)

USERRA protects the job rights of individuals who voluntarily or involuntarily leave employment positions to undertake military service. USERRA also prohibits employers from discriminating against past and present members of the uniformed services, and applicants to the uniformed services. The US Department of Labor, Veterans Employment and Training Services (VETS) are authorized to investigate and resolve complaints of USERRA violations.

GENETIC INFORMATION NONDISCRIMINATION ACT OF 2008

This law makes it illegal to discriminate against employees or applicants because of genetic information. Genetic information includes information about an individual's genetic tests and the genetic tests of an individual's family members, as well as information about any disease, disorder or condition of an individual's family members (i.e. an individual's family medical history). The law also makes it illegal to retaliate against a person because the person complained about discrimination, filed a charge of discrimination, or participated in an employment discrimination investigation or lawsuit.

The program also requires "state agencies, which fail to meet their Affirmative Action and Equal Employment Opportunity goals by Equal Employment Opportunity job category, to establish necessary training programs for preparation and promotion of the job category of individuals affected by the failure. An agency required to establish training programs under this subsection shall do so in cooperation with the Department of Central Management Services as provided in Section 67.30 of the Civil Administrative Code of Illinois."
